Education Built on Relationships

The School of Fine Arts (SOFA)

At the School of Fine Arts students have the opportunity to learn and develop skills with the guidance of qualified Christian instructors, and to use those skills in a variety of ministry settings.

Features

- Private weekly lessons
- Lessons before, during or after school
- Students may prepare for Royal Conservatory or Conservatory Canada Exams
- Students may participate in the Winnipeg Music Festival Competition
- Master Classes and Performance Classes
- Recitals at the end of each semester (February and June)
- Opportunities to participate in musicals, dramas or other programs developed by the church or school
- Opportunities to perform in recitals at seniors' homes, Sunday morning services at GMBC, LCS Chapels, annual Musicathon fundraiser for missions

Art

Students will explore drawing, painting, pottery, sculpture, and photography with a focus on individual expression and development; and relating and combining different media.

Musical Theatre

An exciting opportunity to train in voice, acting and dance. Students will experience the many aspects of putting together a musical from start to finish. In class instruction will lead to a final performance.

Worship Dance

Dance Exploration for Worship: includes techniques of modern and ballet, creative activities for freedom in worship, and choreography.
