Mixed Media Art Class (grades 4-6) Virtual (Google Classroom)

Instructor Marybeth Dirks

Saturdays: 9:00-10:00 (24 classes, September 11- mid March)

$399 includes supplies***

SOFA art students will study famous artists from history and be inspired to create their own work in those styles! Students will get to explore a large variety of media including drawing, painting, clay, felt work, collage, oil pastel and block printing. Students will grow and gain experience with new mediums while paying homage to the past.

*New* Five Week Intensive Drawing Class (grades 4-6) Virtual (Google Classroom)

Marybeth Dirks

Saturdays: 9:00-10:00am April 9, 16, 23, 30, May 7

$105 includes supplies***

Learn how to draw from still life like a real artist, using shade and value to create dimension in your sketchbook! Students will do a blind contour study exercise and will explore different textures and depths that can be achieved with pencil techniques. This class will have sketchbook assignments and drawing prompts to complete between lessons.

*supplies will be available for pick-up at the school prior to the first lesson

Marybeth Dirks is a working artist who specializes in abstracted acrylic paintings. Her current work explores themes of prairie landscape and structures. Dirks has worked with children teaching art and counselling at Red Rock Bible camp and directing summer day camps with the Pembina Trails School Division. More recently she has worked as a docent and directed Spring Break Kids Art Camps with the Winnipeg Art Gallery. She has also developed and instructed new adult workshops and programs with the Winnipeg Art Gallery. She thrives on dreaming up new projects that encourage exploration and creativity. She firmly believes that art shouldn't be intimidating and that it should be accessible and fun for everyone – especially kids!
